

Sexy Little Thing by Roland Albertson

Intro:

E G A G x 4

Verse 1:

E G A G x 8

I see you standing in a line
And biding with your time
And staring at the ceiling.

You're just a diamond in mine
A star up in the sky
But you can't even see it.

I see the beauty in your eyes
The sexy in your lines
The mischief in your mind.

It's all so perfectly aligned
Just everything in time
Then your eyes meet with mine.

Pre-chorus:

Bm A E G E
Bm A D D D#

And in the way you look, I see a little fire.
And the burning up inside is something that you cannot hide.

Chorus:

E G A G
E G D A
E G A G
E G D A

You're just my sexy little baby
And every time you come around
You want to fool around.

The way you move, it drives my crazy
So let us take this to the ground
It's time to get on down.

Chorus Outro:

E G A G x 2

You know you want to get on down

Verse 2:

E G A G x 8

There now you're standing at my side
You're making up your mind
You touch me when you're speaking.

So close, you're sexy when you smile
And tell me all the while
Just what it is you're seeking.

I know you wanna get it on
Just listen to this song
In the lyrics you will find, that it's gonna be alright.

It's clear, it's been there all this time
It's playing with your mind
Just come on and be mine.

(Pre-chorus)
(Chorus)

Solo section:

E G A G x 4

(Pre-chorus)
(Chorus)

Outro:

E G A G x 4

You're just a sexy little thing
A flower with a sting
You're dancing with the feeling.

I know you think the same as me
You feel it your knees
You're dancing with the feeling.

Just come, come away with me
You know you wanna be
Just dancing with the feeling.

Feeling, feeling, feeling.

– end –
