

Like It Was Yesterday

by Roland Albertson

Like it was yesterday

Like it was yesterday

Sometimes when I get lonely,
I like to think about the time we met.
Yes it was like you've always known me,
No awkwardness or reason to pretend.

Your laid back style,
The sweetest smile,
The way you had your hair.
Your hand in mine,
Those easy eyes,
The way you looked at me.
(Like it was yesterday)

Like it was yesterday (x 8)

We took a long and slow ride,
You showed me all the places I should see.
[And] I couldn't help but smile,
At sunset when you cuddled close to me.

And there we sat together,
The light reflecting at the water's edge.
We could have talked forever,
I only hoped that it would never end.

Your skin on mine,
It felt so right,
Warm in the evening breeze.

Your lips close by,
That kiss, oh my,
So gentle and so sweet.
(Like it was yesterday)

Like it was yesterday (x 8)

Your laid back style,
The sweetest smile,
The way you had your hair.
(Like it was yesterday)
Your hand in mine,
Those easy eyes,
The way you looked at me.
(Like it was yesterday)

Like it was yesterday (x 8)