

Sexy Little Thing

by Roland Albertson

I see you standing in a line,
And biding with your time,
And staring at the ceiling.
You're just a diamond in a mine,
A star up in the sky,
But you can't even see it.

I see the beauty in your eyes,
The sexy in your lines,
The mischief in your mind.
It's all so perfectly aligned,
Just everything in time,
Then your eyes meet with mine.

And in the way you look, I see a little fire.
And the burning up inside is something that you cannot hide.

'Cos you're my sexy little baby
And every time you come around
You want to get on down.
The way you move, just drives me crazy
So let us take this to the ground
It's time to get on down.
You know you wanna get on down.

There now you're standing at my side,
You're making up your mind,
You touch me when you're speaking.
So close, you're sexy when you smile,
And tell me all the while,

Just what it is you're seeking.

I know you wanna get it on,
Just listen to this song,
In the lyrics you will find, that's it's gonna be alright.
It's clear, it's been there all the time,
It's playing with your mind,
Just come on and be mine.

Yes in the way you look, I see a little fire.
And the burning up inside is something that you cannot hide.

'Cos you're my sexy little baby
And every time you come around
You want to get on down.
The way you move, just drives me crazy
So let us take this to the ground
It's time to get on down.

You're just a sexy little thing,
A flower with a sting,
You're dancing with the feeling.
I know you think the same as me,
You feel it your knees,
You're dancing with the feeling.

Just come a, come away with me,
You know you wanna be,
Just dancing with the feeling.
Feeling, feeling, feeling.

Yes in the way you look, I see a little fire.
And the burning up inside is something that you cannot hide.

'Cos you're my sexy little baby
And every time you come around
You want to get on down.
The way you move, just drives my crazy
So let us take this to the ground
It's time to get on down.
