

White Wednesday

by Roland Albertson

Can you say you've seen an ocean
Can you say you've seen the sun
What would you do, if it was gone?
Cos' I have seen them all my love
I have seen them all my son
And I can see, that it's begun.

Wo-ho-hooo-hoo-ohooo
Wo-ho-hooo-hoo-ohooo
Wo-ho-hooo-hoo-ohooo
Wo-ho-hooo-hoo-ohooo

Take a look out there my brother
Take a step back if you dare
Tell me when will you, start to care?
See that mountain melt to rivers
See that forest turn to sand
Tell me would you smile, when it's gone?

When it's gone
When it's gone
When it's gone
When it's gone
When it's gone
When it's gone
When it's gone
When it's gone
